Lac La Biche Plans Winter Projects

Council Seeks Government Approval For Improving Sports Facilities

LAC LA BICHE — At the October 9 regular meeting of Lac La Biche Town Council, the Secretary was instructed to make application to the provincial government for approval to two projects under the winter works program.

One undertaking will involve fencing the ball park and making some additions and improvements to the skating rink and sports grounds in general. The other project is to give assistance in completing the Sea Cadet building which is located on town property in the west section of town. If the projects receive the required approval of the provincial and federal governments, work should begin in a short time.

The matter of speeding motorists was discussed, following the reading of a letter from the town's police chief, Mr. Walter Farus. The possibility of purchasing special equipment for apprehending such offenders was given consideration.

The management of the Memorial Hall was discussed and it was felt that the numerous details in connection with events in the hall should be delegated to hall manager. It was decided to call for applications from those interested in managing the hall at special events when the town reserves the Hall. Duties would include decorating, advertizing, ticket sales etc.

Leo Gargus, director of the Lac la Biche Citizen's Band, was present to solicit the council's support for the band. He explained some of the problems faced by the band, particularly the high cost of instruments. Council expressed the opinion that it should have a statement setting out who the officers of the band were, and showing its organizational set up, before financial help could be extended. Pending further clarification, first reading was given a by-law to authorize a grant of $300 to the chamber of commerce, to be earmarked for band purposes.

An application for a building permit for construction of a private garage estimated to cost $1,000 was approved.

Present for the meeting were Councillors Bouvier, Badry, Wolstenholme, McMillan and Vincent, and Secretary Creighton.

Connie McMillan, Winnie Weible Kill Mad Lynx With Bare Hands

By MRS. GLADYS DIESEL

OWL RIVER — Two girls, Connie McMillan and Winnie Weible were walking to the latter's home when they noticed a large lynx in the ditch a short distance in front of them. The animal began to crouch and sneak toward them. It circled them a time or two and Winnie hit it with a rock. It had a foaming mouth, red eyes and the hair on its neck stood straight up. The girls threw another rock as it sprang to attack them. They grabbed at the animal to fend it off, got it down and Winnie sat on it and held down the hind parts. Connie got her knee on to the front part of it as they struggled, with the animal. Then she grabbed up a rock with one hand and began to beat its head. She beat the lynx until it was dead.

Connie was scratched on the hands and face but otherwise the girls were uninjured. They managed to drag the animal to Connie's home but they are not planning to skin it. Both girls were pale, looked ill and were unable to eat any supper. These girls were forced to fight with this wild mad animal and they came out of the battle victorious.

Daniel Viellette Weds Irene Littlechilds At Lac la Biche United

Lac la Biche United church was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding when Miss Irene Littlechilds, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Littlechilds, became the bride of Mr. Daniel Viellette, son of Mrs. Mary Viellette of Owl River.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Autin.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a floor length gown of net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a small aura and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Gertie Huppie, the bridesmaid, wore a dress of green net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Best man was Gordon Viellette, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Littlechilds chose a dress of navy blue taffeta with a white corsage.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Viellette wore a two-piece grey suit accented with a pink corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Littlechilds. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Viellette will make their home at Lac la Biche.

Colorful Publication Brings Alberta's Story To Readers

Beginning officially with this week's issue, all the papers published by the Sun Publishing Co. Ltd., will carry the colorful "Rural Alberta" section.

"Rural Alberta" is Canada's first weekly supplement specifically planned and produced for rural readers. Thus it becomes another "first" for Alberta.

During the coming weeks the public will have the privilege of reading the story of Alberta, its colorful past, its exciting present and its promising future. Not only will events of the province at large be related, but activities of the community and the small neighborhood be recorded. Colorful photographs will help brighten the pages and give life to the stories.

The gourmet, too, will not be forgotten. Enticing recipes with mouth-watering illustrations will appear each week.

Through an error some copies of this section were distributed last week, a week ahead. This means that the paper which carried the supplement on that date will not contain it this week. But "Alberta Rural" will appear in future issues of the papers.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir: Would you kindly allow space in your paper to bring the forthcoming Farmers' Union of Alberta membership drive to the attention of your readers.

It is no secret that both rural and urban areas prosper in direct proportion to the prosperity of the farmers in those areas. This prosperity is governed to a large extent by the efficiency of the operation of the agricultural industry. This efficiency is greatly increased by the FUA organization to which many farmers belong year after year. It is my opinion that the anual FUA membership fee is repaid many times in benefits to the members of our committee.

May I express the hope that the farmers in your area will receive the FUA convassers on the week of Nov. 5-9. If there is no local organization to do the canvassing in any district I would be pleased to hear from any farmers concerned and I would endeavor to have this work done.

W. D. LEA.
FUA Director, District S.
Jarvie, Alberta.

LIVELIER COOKING WITH SPICES AND HERBS

There is scarcely any food item that cannot be improved by the addition of seasoning. Spices and herbs are varied enough to gratify any taste.

Herbs usually come from annual or biennial plant and are made from the leafy or soft portions. Spices are made from the root, flower, berry or fruit of vegetation which generally has a longer growing period.

B. McCutcheon

Experiment with the spices and herbs you do not know well. Add in small amounts: then taste before adding more. Remember that ground spices are more pungent than whole spices. Fresh herbs are less aromatic than dried. Be sure that packages are well closed after use. Over exposure to air, dampness, heat and light should be avoided. The value of spices and herbs depends on certain fine, essential oils, formed during growth. These are soon impaired if packages remain open.

Did you know that one of the best ways to cope with left over cooked fish is to make a curry of it? Prepare a curry sauce, add the cooked sea food, and simmer it in the sauce for a few minutes. Then serve over fluffy cooked rice. A safe rule to follow is to add ½ teaspoon of curry to a cup of sauce or liquid and then increase the amount to suit your taste.

Curry can be used in a variety of subtle ways. Next time you fry fillets, add a little curry powder to the flour-salt mixture in which you dredge them. Or, add a little curry powder to your favorite salad dressing—then serve it on a seafood salad. For a quick casserole, mix a little curry powder with a can of condensed cream soup diluted to sauce consistency. Add the soup to canned fish, and bake until bubbling hot, under a topping of buttered crumbs.

Oregano is a herb which is a favorite with Mexican and Italian cooks. Its aromatic odor and likeable bitter taste enhances soups meat dishes, chili con carne and spaghetti

Oregano closely resembles Marjoram in taste—though the flavor is stronger and pleasantly bitter.

Bay Leaf imparts a pleasant odor, but the flavor is aromatic and bitter. The fine flavor it give to meats, potatoes, soups and fish makes it a cook's favorite the world around. One of the simplest uses is to drop a bay leaf into the water which potatoes are being boiled. Bay Leaf can be overpowering. Sometimes half a leaf is better than one.

Spices and herbs are inexpensive and are in great variety. Why not experiment with one or two unfamiliar ones?

C. McFarland Enjoys Reminiscences At Party Held On 74th Birthday

LAC LA BICHE — Mr. C. W. McFarland was honored on his 74th birthday by some 70 friends at a party held in the old Mangion school Saturday evening, Oct. 13.

An interesting evening of music and games was enjoyed. David Cadieux, a former pupil of Mr. McFarland's was MC for the evening. Those taking part in the musical program included Rev. and Mrs. Billy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Plett, Mrs. David Cadieux, Mrs. M. McCormick, Mr. Joe Phillips and a number of the boys and girls.

Others who spoke on behalf of the group were Fred Munavich of Owl River, William Maslyk of Edmonton and Nick Bobocel. A telegram, conveying birthday wishes from Mr. and Mrs. Gillman Moe of Banff, was read during the evening.

F. D. Creighton, on behalf of the friends present, presented Mr. McFarland with a beautiful lazy-boy easy chair. Following the presentation, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson sang the following song composed by Mrs. Jackson:

"Many years ago today across the sea in Ireland,
A little baby boy was born for sure a 'fine wee mon,'
There his parents prayed this child would be a servant of the Lord,
And sought to bring him up by God's own Word.

After years went by, he felt the urge new country for to see,
So he left the land of shamrocks and he sailed across the sea.
We are glad he thought that Canada looked to him pretty good
Or we'd never had him in our neighborhood.

Many year he spent with chalk in hand and text books by the score,
Trying to teach those noisy kids who longed to be outdoors,
Some here have many memories as they walked through this door,
Of the time they learned that two and two make four.

Then on Sundays, never idle, he could usually be found
In a little country schoolhouse, with some neighbors gathered round.
There he'd tell them of the One that to him meant more than the world,
For he loves to speak the glories of his Lord.

We have gathered here a group of friends, just to let you know,
That we're all glad to know you and we want to tell you so,
We appreciate your godly life, your kind and thoughtful way,
And we say to you a happy, blessed birthday."

Mr. McFarland, a bachelor, has completed 44 years of teaching in Alberta schools, 20 of them spent in the Mangion school, seven miles south of Lac la Biche. Here he taught two generations over the years.

He also taught at Standard, Spruce Grove, Gunn and in the Lacombe district. During his years of service in various schools, he was instrumental in organizing many Junior Red Cross clubs and many a child has attended his first Sunday School, organized in some rural school by Mr. McFarland.

His many friends join in wishing him health and happiness and many more happy birthdays.

New Dr. Swift Schoo With Ultimate In Fi

Congrat

"Opened for occupancy last month, the new Dr. Swift School in Lac la Biche is as nearly fire proof as modern methods can make it," reports Mr. S. J. Clark, secretary-treasurer of the Lac la Biche School Division No. 6.

Fire destroyed the former Dr. Swift school, a stucco, frame building, in June of 1961. Fortunately, it was mostly covered by insurance.

Construction of the new school began in March of 1962, and was completed in time for September enrolment. It is just the first part of a two-stage program which is expected to reach total completion in time for September enrolment of next year. Plans for the second part of the building program include two more classrooms, a typing room, a library, a gymnasium and a stage.

Present facilities include nine classrooms, a science laboratory, a staff room, currently used as a typing room—and a large administrative area. The school is presently accommodating grades 8 to 12, but will include also two classrooms of grade 7 students when the second stage is completed. The grade 7 students are presently enrolled in the elementary school.

During the period that the school was under construction, accommodations were made for the students in various public buildings in the town, including the gymnasium and stage of the elementary school, the school division office, the town hall, and also the Masonic hall.

The new Dr. Swift school is located in the south west edge of town. It retained the name of the former school, which was named after Dr. W. H. Swift who is presently the deputy minister of education for the province of Alberta, and who was formerly the pioneer inspector of schools in the Lac la Biche-Athabasca area.

Of concrete block construction, faced with brick, the one-storey school covers an area of 16,220 square feet. It has four entrances and is designed with a flat bonded roof, lined with gyproc and asbestos.

Approximate cost of the first stage of the school was $250,000, and was financed without a debenture debt, partly through insurance on the old school and partly through Part F of the Foundation Program. A final grant of $41,561.56 to be made to the school division by the Foundation Program at the end of the year will complete the cost of the first stage of construction.

Secretary-treasurer, Mr. Clark, reports that the Lac la Biche school division is in the fortunate position at the present time of being debt free. The division includes 670,000 acres of land with nine operating schools with a total enrolment of 1,642 students. Prior to the Dr. Swift school, the last new school built was the Rick Lake school in 1960.

Present enrolment at the new Dr. Swift school is 305. The school has a staff of 11 teachers and principal is F. W. McMillan.

"Day Of Golden Promise" Is Theme Of Boyle Graduation

"The Golden Day of Promise" was the theme of the Boyle High school graduation held recently. A graduation banquet and commencement exercises were held in the school auditorium and a dance in the Community Centre concluded the evenings activities.

Six graduands: Donald Alexander, Theresa Beaudry, Edwin Gingras, Marie Ann Gingras, Erna Ness, and Raymond Saxton were honored by a banquet at which 64 guests were present. Among the invited guests were the Rev. Denis Corness, who gave the invocation; M. S. Gault, the superintendent of schools for the county of Athabasca, and Mrs. Gault; E. Parr, chairman of the school education committee and Mrs. Parr; Mr. Radmanovich, mayor of Boyle and Mrs. Radmanovich, and S. Wiskel, the guest speaker and Mrs. Wiskel.

The auditorium was colorfully decorated with fall colors and plants. The names of the graduates were printed in gold or black leaves and were placed on one wall among other small gold leaves. The stage was clustered with ferns, flowers, bushes and cat-tails. Props with painted water and clouds provided a lovely background for these bright autumn colors. In addition symbols of the various occupations of the graduands were painted in the clouds. Above this all, "The Day of Golden Promise" was written and illuminaed with a red glow of light.

The graduates and others assembled in the auditorium at 8:30 p.m. for the commencement exercises. Principal M. Lund, the chairman, made the opening speech and introduced the guests. He first introduced Mr. Gault, who compared the marks of the graduating class in Boyle with other schools in the county of Athabasca and in Alberta. Next, Donald Alexander, the class historian, recalled some of the humorous and memorable events during his classe's 12 years in school and Marie Gingras, the valedictorian, gave her speech. They were followed by the song, "My Task" sung by Lorraine Bencharsky and accompanied by Joan Alexander. At this time S. Wiskel, a former student of Boyle High school, gave the graduation address. This was followed by the presentation of scrolls by M. Lund.

SHOWN ABOVE ARE BOYLE High School graduates, Donald Alexander, Theresa Beaudry, Edwin Gingras, Marie Ann Gingras, Erna Ness and Raymond Saxton.

The awards were presented by D. Elgert and J. McNamara Sr., Mr. Elgert presented Marie Gingras with the valedictorian award; Erna Ness with the girls activities award; Donald Alexander with the boys' activities award; Marion Good with the girls' sports award and Gordon Stromberg with the boys sports award. Two Alberta Hotel scholarships were presented to Jean Meminuk and Edwin Hutzel.

The women of the Home and School were thanked for catering the banquet and the High school students were acknowledged for decorating and preparing the auditorium for the banquet and exercises.
